Youth-exchange - Échange de jeunes – Jugendaustausch - Razmjena mladih

J+N Pro Natura Neuchâtel (CH) – CEM Travnik (BiH)

2 weeks of knowledge and skill-share on river protection and environmental responsibility

26.07.2020-11.08.2020

Participating organizations:

Jeunes+Nature Pro Natura Neuchâtel (Switzerland):

The group “J+N Pro Natura Neuchâtel” is part of the Swiss organisation for nature protection “Pro Natura” and the local youth branch in the canton of Neuchâtel. It is composed of around 10 young volunteers, who organize every month a daily program for children aged from 5 to 12 years in this region. The aim of the activities is to raise awareness of the value and importance of local nature resources among the participating children as well as the volunteers. The development of social competences, responsibility taking and creativity is also enhanced during the activities. One salaried coordinator is officially responsible for the group. Responsible person: Maiann Suhner, maiann.suhner@floraneuch.ch, www.pronatura-ne.ch

Centar za edukaciju mladih (CEM), Travnik (Bosnia and Herzegovina):

The “Centar za edukaciju mladih” in Travnik is an association working for and with the local youth with the aim to enable young individuals to be proactive and to engage for the society they are part of in a creative, human and responsible way. Next to several programs regarding culture, sport, economy, the CEM would like to initiate a group focusing on the protection of local natural resources and environment.

Responsible person: Amela Mrakic, amela.mrakic@cem.ba, www.cem.ba

Centar za životnu sredinu (CZZS), Banja Luka (Bosnia and Herzegovina):

CZZS is a national organization for environmentl in Bosnia-Herzegovina. CZZS as well as Pro Natura are partners – and both organizations are part of Friends of the Earth International. The meeting centre Pecka is a place for awareness raising on environment and nature protection, where CZZS is actively engaged.

Responsible person: Nestor Ruiz, nestor.ruiz@czzs.org, www.czzs.org

i-Platform, Bern (Switzerland):

i-platfom aims to support and promote the development of Bosnia and Herzegovina by connecting its diaspora in Switzerland, gathering and exchanging information, connecting actors from both countries, supporting and promoting initiatives that contribute to the development of social, economic, ecological and cultural processes in Bosnia and Herzegovina. In its action, i-platform undertakes maximum efforts to build bridges between persons, professions and common interests of Switzerland and Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Responsible person: Nikola Buric, nikola.buric@idijaspora.ch, www.i-platform.ch

The following organisations are also involved in the project:

- J+N Pro Natura Deutschschweiz (Switzerland) : 2-3 participants of Pro Natura J+N-groups of from German-speaking Swiss sections are welcomed to join the group.
- “The brave women of Kruscica” in Travnik, BiH

Participants:

- max. 9 young volunteers from Switzerland, active as volunteers in the group J+N Pro Natura Neuchâtel/Jura bernois/Jura and surroundings, possibly volunteers from other sections of Pro Natura or institutions with similar aims.
- 3 coordinators and persons in charge from Switzerland
- max. 9 young volunteers from Bosnia-Herzegovina, active as volunteers at CEM in Travnik, possibly volunteers from other institutions with similar aims.
- 3 coordinators and persons in charge from Bosnia-Herzegovina

Goals:

The goals of the project are:

- Knowledge exchange between the participating organizations. Mutual learning about the organization of activities for children and young people. Through non-formal learning methods, participants will get experience on the topics of environmental responsibility, nature protection and emotional binding to local natural value.
- Creation of a group "Youth for Nature" within CEM in Travnik, inspired by the functioning of the groups Jeunes+Nature of Pro Natura Switzerland.
- Motivation of young volunteers to engage locally for nature protection within their youth-groups, develop ownership and self-identification to their organization.
- Learning about the environmental and cultural context of the partner country to strengthen the international skills of all participants and to best support each other for future projects and activities
- Bringing together young people of different social and ethnic contexts, and learning about different life situations by getting in touch with the culture, daily life and nature protection topics of the partner country, in order to break stereotypes and create bonds of friendship
- Strengthening the international network Friends of the earth by further collaboration of the two member organizations Pro Natura (Switzerland) and CZZS (Bosnia-Herzegovina).
